(h) makes any alteration to any building which increases or diminishes the height of, or area converted by, or the cubic capacity of, the building, or which reduces the cubic capacity of any room in the building below the minimum prescribed by any byelaw made under this Ordinance.

26. Conditions of valid notice. (1) A person giving the notice required by paragraph 25 shall specify the purpose for which it is intended to use the budding to which such notice relates.

(2) Where a plan to re lay a street has been approved by a concerned local government, a person who intends to erect or re-erect a building or commences to erect or re erect a building shall adopt the approved building or street line and for this purpose any space required to be left vacant shall vest in the local government.

(3) No notice shall be valid until it is made in the manner prescribed in the bye laws made under this Ordinance alongwith plans and other information which may be required therein have been furnished to the satisfaction of the concerned local government along with the notice.

27. Power of Board to sanction or refuse. (1) The concerned local government may for reasons to be recorded in writing, either refuse to sanction the erection or re erection, as the case may be, of the building, or may sanction it either absolutely or subject to such directions as it thinks fit to make in writing in respect of all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the free passage or way to be left in front of the building;

(b) the space to be left about the building;

(c) the ventilation of the building, the minimum cubic area of the rooms and the number and height of the stories of which the building may consist;

(d) the provision and position of drains, latrines, urinals, cesspools or other receptacles for wastes;

(e) the level and width of the foundation, the level of the lowest floor and the stability of the structure;

(f) the line of frontage with neighbouring buildings if the building abuts on a street;

(g) the means to be provided for egress from the building in case of fire;

(h) the materials and method of construction to be used for external and party walls for rooms, floors fire places and chimneys;

(i) the height and slope of the roof above the uppermost floor upon which human beings are to live or cooking operations are to be carried on; and

(j) any other matter affecting the ventilation sanitation safety or environmental aspects of the buildings and its relationship to the surrounding buildings or areas; and the person erecting or re-erecting the building shall obey all such written directions in every particular.

(2) A concerned local government may refuse to sanction the erection or reerection of any building, either on grounds sufficient in the opinion of the concerned local government affecting the particular building, or in pursuance of a notified general scheme or plan of the concerned local government, restricting the erection or re erection of buildings within specified limits or for any other public purpose.

(3) The concerned local government before sanctioning the erection or reerection of a building on land which is under the management of the Federal or Provincial Government or any agency thereof, shall ascertain in writing within thirty days of application whether there is any objection or, the part of the concerned Government to such erection or re erection.

(4) The concerned local government may refuse to sanction the erection or re erection of any building

(a) when the land on which it is proposed to erect or re erect the building is held on a lease from the Federal or Provincial Government if, the erection or re erection constitutes a breach of the terms of the lease, or

(b) when the land on which it is proposed to erect or re erect the building is not held on a lease from the Government, if the right to build on such land is in dispute between the person applying for sanction and the Government.

(5) If the concerned local government decides to refuse to sanction the erection or re erection of the building, it shall communicate in writing the reasons for such refusal to the person by whom notice was given.

(6) Where the concerned local government neglects or omits for forty five days after the receipt of a valid notice, to make and to deliver to the person who has given the notice any order of any nature specified in this paragraph, and such person thereafter by a written communication sent by registered post to the concerned local government calls the attention of the concerned local government to the neglect or omission, then, if such neglect or omission continues for a further period of fifteen days from the date of such communication the concerned local government shall be deemed to have given sanction to the erection or re erection, as the case may be unconditionally to the extent that it does not contravene the provisions of the building bye laws and any notified general scheme for the area:

Provided that, in any case to which the provisions of s fib- paragraph (3) apply, the period of forty five days herein specified shall be reckoned from the date on which the concerned local government has received the report referred to in that sub paragraph.

(7) The concerned local government may, after notice and for reasons to be recorded, cancel, modify or withdraw the sanction of a site plan at any time before construction has been commenced or made.

(8) Noting in this paragraph shall apply to any work, addition or alteration which the concerned council may, by by-laws, declared to be exempt.

28. Compensation. – (1) No compensation shall be claimable by any person for any damage or loss which he may sustain in consequence of the refusal of the local government of sanction to the erection of any building or in respect of any direction issued by it under sub paragraph (1) of paragraph 27.

(2) The concerned local government shall make compensation to the owner of any building for any actual damage or loss sustained by him in consequence of the prohibition of the re erection of any building or of its requiring any land belonging to him to be added to the street:

Provided that the concerned local government shall not be liable to make any compensation in respect of the prohibition of the re erection of any building which for a period of three years or more immediately preceding such refusal has not been in existence or has been unfit for human habitation.

29. Lapse of sanction. Every sanction for the erection or reerection of a building given or deemed to have been given by the concerned local government as herein before provided shall be available for one year from the date on which it is given, and, if the building so sanctioned is not begun by the person who has obtained the sanction or some one lawfully claiming under him within that period, it shall not thereafter be begun unless the concerned local government on application made therefore has allowed an extension of that period.

30. Period for completion of building. A concerned local government, when sanctioning the erection or re erection of a building as herein before provided, shall specify a reasonable period after the work has commenced within which the erection or reerection is to be completed, and, if the erection or re erection is not completed within the period so fixed, it shall not be continued thereafter without fresh sanction obtained in the manner hereinbefore provided, unless the concerned local government on application made therefore has allowed an extension of that period:

Provided that not more than two such extensions shall be allowed by the concerned local government in any case.

31. Illegal erection and re erection. Whoever begins, continues or completes the erection or re erection of a building

(a) without having given a valid notice as required by paragraphs 25 and 26 or before the building has been sanctioned or is deemed to have been sanctioned, or

(b) without complying with any direction made under subparagraph (1) of paragraph 27, or

(c) when sanction has been refused, or has ceased to be available, or has been suspended by the concerned local government shall be punishable with fine as prescribed.

32. Power to stop erection or re erection or to demolish. A local government may, at any time, by notice in writing, direct the owner, lessee or occupier of any land in its local area to stop the erection or re erection of a building in any case in which the concerned local government considers that such erection or re erection is an offense paragraph 31, and may in any such case or in any other case in which the concerned local government considers that the erection or re erection of a building is an offence under paragraph 31 within twelve months of the completion of such erection or re erection in like manner direct the alteration or demolition, as it thinks necessary, of the building, or any part thereof, so erected or re-erected:

Provided that the concerned local government may, instead of requiring the alteration or demolition of any such building or part thereof, accept by way of composition such sum as it thinks reasonable.

33. Completion of building or alteration of buildings. (1) Every person who has erected or re erected a building shall, within thirty days of the completion of the building, report such completion to the concerned local government.

(2) The concerned local government may cause to be inspected any building of which construction has begun or which has been erected or re erected in violation or contravention of any provision of this Ordinance, rules or the by laws or of the master plan or site development scheme, if any. The local government may require the alteration of the building so as to be in compliance therewith, and where such alteration is not possible, it may require the building or any part thereof to be demolished, or on the application of the owner of such building compound the offense on payment of such composition fee as may be deemed reasonable.

(3) If a building is required to be demolished under the provisions of subparagraph (2) and such requirement is not complied with, within the specified period, the local government may have the building demolished through its own agency and the cost so incurred shall be deemed to be a tax levied on the owner or occupier of the building under this Ordinance.

34. Regulation of buildings. (1) Except with the prior sanction of concerned local government, no building shall be put to a use other than shown in the building plan according to which it was erected or re erected:

Provided that the local government shall not sanction any change in the use of a building which may be in violation or contravention of the master plan or site development scheme, if any.

(2) If any building or anything fixed thereon be deemed by the concerned local government to be in a ruinous state or likely to fall or in any way dangerous to any inhabitant of such building or of any neighbouring building or to any occupier thereof or to passersby, the local government may, by notice, require the owner or occupier of such building to demolish it or to take such action in regard to the building as may be specified in the notice, and if there is default, the local government may take necessary action and the cost so incurred shall be deemed to be a tax levied on the owner or occupier of the building under this Ordinance..

(3) If a building is so ill constructed, or dilapidated or in dangerous condition or otherwise unfit for human habitation, the concerned local government may prohibit the occupation of such building till it has been suitably repaired to the satisfaction of the local government.

(4) If the building is in dangerous condition and declared unfit for human habitation, the concerned local government may for the purpose of demolition eject the owner or occupier from such building with such necessary force as may be required or in the manner laid down in paragraph 47.

(5) Where it appears to concerned local government that any block of buildings is in an unhealthy condition by reason of the manner in which the buildings are crowded together, or of the narrowness or closeness of the street, or of the want of proper drainage or ventilation, or of the impracticability of cleansing the buildings or other similar cause, it may cause the block to be inspected by a committee consisting of such officials of the concerned local government as prescribed in the bye laws

The committee shall make a report in writing to the concerned local government on the sanitary condition of the block, and if it considers that the condition thereof is likely to cause risk of disease to the inhabitants of the building or of the neighbourhood or otherwise to endanger the public health it shall dearly indicate on allay verified by a senior technical professional of the concerned local government the buildings which should in its opinion wholly or in part be removed in order to abate the unhealthy condition of the block.

If, upon receipt of such report, the concerned local government is of opinion that all or any buildings indicated should be removed, it may, by notice in writing, require the owners, thereof to remove them:

Provided that the concerned local government shall make compensation to the owners for any buildings so removed which may have been erected under proper authority:

Provided, further, that the concerned local government may, if it considers it equitable in the circumstances so to do, pay to the owners such sum as it thinks fit as compensation for any buildings so removed which have not been erected under proper authority.

For the purposes of this sub paragraph "buildings" includes enclosure walls and fences appertaining to buildings.

(6) Where it appears to a local government that any building or part of a building which is used as a dwelling house is so overcrowded as to endanger the health of the inmates thereof, it may, after such inquiry as it thinks fit, by notice in writing require the owner or occupier of the building or part thereof, as the case may be, within such time not being less than one month as may be specified in the notice, to abate the overcrowding of the same by reducing the number of lodgers, tenants, or other inmates to such number as may be specified in the notice. Any person who fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with a requisition made upon him under this paragraph shall be punishable with such fine as may be prescribed by the concerned local government and in the case of a continuing offense, to an additional fine for every day after the first during which the failure has continued.

35. Projections and obstructions. (1) No owner or occupier of any building in a local area shall, without the permission in writing of the concerned local government add to or place against or in front of the building any projection or structure overhanging, projecting into, or encroaching on, any street or any drain, sewer or aqueduct therein.

(2) The concerned local government may, by notice in writing, require the owner or occupier of any such building to alter or remove any such projection or encroachment as aforesaid:

Provided that, in the case of any projection or encroachment lawfully in existence at the commencement of this Ordinance the concerned local government shall make compensation for any damage caused. by the removal or alteration.

36. Unauthorized buildings over drains, etc. – A local government may, by notice in writing, require any person who has, without its permission in writing, newly erected or re-erected any structure over any public sewer, drain, culvert, water course or water pipe in its local area to pull down or otherwise deal with the same as it thinks fit.

37. Drainage and sewer connections. (1) A local government may, by notice in writing, require the owner or lessee of any building or land in any street, at his own expense and in such manner as the concerned local government thinks fit, to put up and keep in good condition proper troughs and pipes for receiving and carrying rain water from the building or land and for discharging the same or to establish and maintain any other connection or communication between such building or land and any drain or sewer.
